Regardless of modern technology and 21st century growth, all things have a lifetime. They will break, corrupt, or misbehave. Over a decade, I have had my hands on computer technology->> designing it, building it, using it, or repairing it . Computers, laptops, monitors, digital cameras all got my attention and care in the past. And really, I like trouble-shooting challenges of any source. Contact me .